FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1893.

The National House Committee on Rivers and Harbors were visiting the Kentucky river this week.

With all the Republican victories of this fall there were not enough to result in the gain of even one United States Senator for them.

Carter Harrison will $10,000 to charitable institutions. His remaining $950,000 is to be divided equally among his four children at the end of two years.

The President has appointed J. Scott Harrison, a brother of ex-President Harrison, Surveyor of Customs at Kansas City. Mr. Harrison is a good Democrat, refusing to accept office under his brother, and is a man of good business qualifications.

An income tax of probably 2 per cent. on salaries above $3,500 or $4,000 is favored by the majority of the House Ways and Means Committee. It is estimated that this would afford an annual revenue of $50,000,000, and would remove the necessity of making any increase in other internal revenue taxes.

The reviews for the week of the Dun and Bradstreet mercantile agencies are the most encouraging in months. Both declare that the turn of the tide has come. There has been a distinct improvement in business generally, and particularly in manufacturing. There is some increase in actual transactions and a decided improvement in the one of trade.

The question presented by the situation in Hawaii is reopened in a sensational manner, and it is probable that by the action of Minister Willis, under his official instructions, the deposed Queen has already been restored to her throne. In a report to the President, dated October 18, Secretary Gresham, after reviewing the history of the Hawaiian revolution, declared that the Provisional Government there was virtually established by the United States intervention, that the treaty should not again be sent to the senate, and asked: "Should not the great wrong done to a feeble but independent State by an abuse of the authority of the United States be undone by restoring the legitimate Government? Anything short of this will not, I respectfully submit, satisfy the demands of justice."—Courier-Journal.

Editor Chas. H. Taylor, of the Boston Globe, is a level-headed man, and writes as follows about the recent elections:

"The result of the election Tuesday simply repeated political history. Following great National Republican victories in our time that party has been divided on the distribution of the offices and other questions, put up weak men here and there, and has been badly whipped many times. The financial stringency led the business men of the country to call for the repeal of the Sherman act. If the Senate had voted as promptly as the House did confidence would have been restored at once, and business would have improved in a great degree. When the Senate finally acted it was too late to do any good. It is clear to every man of sense in the country that our form of popular Government is a failure when the Senate of the United States does not have a majority by which the majority of its members present can record a vote where ready to do so, that it is a failure so far as the Senate is concerned. The sooner such a rule is adopted the better. The result indicates that the Democratic party should take prompt and conservative action on the tariff. Probably the country will not have adjusted itself to the change by next fall, and the logic of our political history indicates that we must look for further Democratic reserves next year. Such reserves can only be avoided or reduced to a minimum by the exercise of the greatest wisdom and otiom. In the third and fourth years of Cleveland's Administration abundant prosperity will undoubtedly have become widespread, and the Democratic party will be able to fight the next National Campaign with every argument against a change of Administration in its favor."

In Memoriam.

The brethren of Flat Gap Lodge, No. 616 having been suddenly alarmed by the knock of death at the door of this lodge, on the 25th of Oct., 1893, the master convened the lodge in emergent communication for the purpose of paying the last sad tribute of respect to our deceased brother, Elihu Tivis Wallin, who departed this life at his residence on the 24th of October, 1893, at the age of 37 years.

He was initiated into masonry on the 13 of Sept., 1890, in Flat Gap Lodge No. 616. He became a member of the church the 11th of Dec., 1888, and was a true and faithful brother of both the fraternity and the church until death. As a man he was honest and upright in all his dealings with his fellowmen; as a citizen he was loved and respected by all who knew him. The community will miss him and mourn his loss with his relatives.

The lodge adopted the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, L. has pleased the Supreme Architect of the universe to call from his labors upon earth our beloved brother Elihu Tivis Wallin, calling him by his omnipotent will to that judgment which awaits all who are toiling in this earthly temple and

Whereas, The Masonic ties which have bound us in mutual friendship and enjoyment to our departed brother are severed no more to be reunited until the day when the grave yields up its dead, therefore be it

Resolved, That we sincerely mourn this disruptive of covenant friendship bearing in tender remembrance his fidelity to Masonry and his devotion to the principles it inculcates.

Resolved, That we earnestly sympathize with the relatives and friends of our deceased brother and tender them that consolation which the world can neither give nor take away; and that we will wear the ritual badge of mourning for the space of 30 days.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolution be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother and be inserted in the Paintsville Courier, Big Sandy News and the Mt. Sterling Gazette.

The Best Plaster.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or head in the side. A sore throat really stays be cut out by the use of a little Chamberlain's Balm rubbed with Pain Balm. Great relief is sold by A. M. Hughes, Louisville, Ky.

PEACH ORCHARD.

One of the Ashland papers has a correspondent at this place known as "Sammy," as he has been showing up our town in grand style, we thought we would send a few items to our "home" paper, occasionally along, as the happenings happen to happen.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Garrod, returned last Saturday from a pleasant visit with friends in Ohio.

L. S. Johnson, formerly superintendent of mines at this place, is here doing some surveying for the G. W. M. & Co. We are glad to have him with us again.

Mrs. B. F. Johnson (usually known as Graney) and her daughter, Minnie, are visiting in Catlettsburg and Ashland this week.

U. S. Howell, L. C. Black, and some more "Big Bugs" were up from Cincinnati last week.

George Boling, who has been sick with fever, for about two months, we are glad to hear, is on the road to recovery.

James Brown and mother will leave Friday morning for Jelico, Tenn. We are sorry to see them go, and with a host of friends, wish them success in the "Sunny South."

The company has imported a vast number of Italian and Hungarian laborers to this place. They seem to be working all "our man" out. There is one redeeming feature, however, our people will have an opportunity to learn the Italian language.

Messrs. Copley and Keys are taking hold with a vim to learn er. Harry Copley was here last week.

* Miss Rebecca Blevins, of White House, Ky., is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. T. Preston.

There are quite a number of cases of whooping cough in our village.

John T. Hibbard will leave in a few days with a car load of cattle for Cincinnati.

James Darby returned Saturday from the Indian Territory.

Senator Harris as a Philosopher.

Glasgow Times: When Senator Harris solemnly announced that he would "philosophize" till he was "over" before the repeal bill should pass, he was displaying a boasted ascription rather than cold fact. Either this, or else he was "congealed" or the Senator's backbone melted right down into his socks within twelve hours after his determination to relieve the situation in the kingdom of Sassa. As a valiant leader of forlorn hope, Senator Harris deserves to be in the front in history alongside the general, who, watching a rabbit scurrying away as the battle waxed hot, sighed "Go it, cotton-tail. I wish to God I could go with you."

Are your children subject to "croup"? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail. It gives freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. 70 cent bottles for sale by A. M. Hughes, Louisville, Ky.

Miss Sallie Hampton, of Catlettsburg, was recently the guest of Miss Mattie Wallace.

Mrs. J. T. Hawkworth and Mrs. Fields, of Ashland, attended the wedding here this week.

The largest stock of groceries ever brought to Louisa will be here this week for Spencer.

Mrs. D. H. Carpenter, of Catlettsburg, has been visiting relatives here for several days.

Flour from the best in the market to the lowest grade at cut prices at the Louisa Milling Co.

Miss Mollie McHenry is again able to take charge of her school, after a spell of sickness.

Mrs. Wm. Justice has returned from a two weeks visit to her brother at White House.

Dr. Atkinson, of Paintsville, was here last week looking around with a view to locating in Louisa.

License was issued Wednesday for the marriage of David Sizemore to Miss Belle Hatfield, which is to take place Saturday.

General B. D. Vance and Rev. Clark, of the S. A. of the L., are holding a series of meetings at the Baptist church in this place.

Rev. French attended the district conference at Ashland and was absent over Sunday. No services were held at his church.

A. M. Hughes is sole agent for a preparation for removing grease, paint, or other stains from woolen, silk and other goods. It is guaranteed.

Coming to the fact that this county has the largest population of any in this Senatorial district, it is deemed upon the Lawrence county board to compete with the returns.

The Louisa Roller Mills make the best grade of meal and sell it for 60 cents a bushel.

A man was here this week proposing to start a machine shop. Hope he will see his way clear to do so.

Mrs. Roe Vaughan, of Catlettsburg, and Mrs. Callahan and daughter, of New Orleans, are guests of relatives at this place.

Upon the belief that the ordinance was unconstitutional which required a deposit from new merchants, the Trustees last night repealed it.

Dr. Berry removed his family to Ashland this week. He will remain here, however, for several months. We are sorry to lose him. Wish them the greatest success in their new location.

Prof. Anderson is desirous of establishing a library for the Louisa schools, and an effort to start a fund will be made soon. It is a very commendable undertaking and one in which everybody should lend a hand.

Byron Muncey and Miss Tola Diamond were married at the home of the bride's parents in Smokey Valley Wednesday. They are son and daughter of Jas. I. Muncey and David Diamond, two highly respected citizens.

There were 14 applicants in the examination for teachers' certificates held at Fallburg the 3d and 4th. Eleven obtained certificates of the first class, 13 of the second class and 8 of the third class. Twelve applicants failed.

The records in the clerk's office show but five or six physicians of Lawrence county registered, as is required by the law which went into effect in Kentucky Oct. 3d. The failure of some of them is on account of the State Board not having acted upon their cases. As to the rest we don't know what the matter is.

Jas. M. Dixon died at his home on Georges creek last Saturday, after a confinement of three weeks with typhoid fever. He was buried on Monday at the old Dixon home place, near Paintsville. The burial was conducted by the Brushy I. O. O. F. lodge, assisted by members of the order from Paintsville.

Mr. Dixon was thirty-eight years old, and leaves a wife and four children. He was a brother to Robt. Dixon, our County Clerk, and married a daughter of John R. Chapman, of this county. His death is a loss to the good citizenship of this section.

The engagement of Mr. J. K. Long, of Madisonville, Ky., to Miss Bessie Davis, step-daughter of Rev. J. S. Cox, of this place, is announced. The wedding is to occur within the next three months.

As Mr. Long is a stranger to Louisa people it would not be irrelevant to state in this connection that he bears the highest reputation for moral worth in his community. He is a prosperous young merchant and enjoys the entire confidence and respect of his acquaintances. For these facts we have the word of a gentleman from Madisonville whom we met while down in Kentucky a few months ago, and we take pleasure in mentioning them.

Col. Northrup has a man from the farming district of New York in charge of his farming lands near Louisa and will cultivate them quite extensively during the coming season. The Elsie lands will receive the greater part of his attention. One thousand peach trees are being put out on the hill at the head of Three Mill Creek as an experiment. Experience has proved that peach orchards on the hills in this section are almost a sure crop, and it is strange that scarcely any of our farmers have ever planted any such orchards. If our farmers will watch this New Yorker they will doubtless learn a good many things of advantage to them.

Who Was It?
A certain Lawrence county woman who has plenty of dollars, but a very hazy idea of English orthography, returned from a visit to Chicago recently. She said to a friend, "Oh, I had such a perfectly lovely time. We stopped at a house where we rode up to our rooms in a refrigerator, and I always had my washing done at the laundry right there at the house. It was awful nice. There was no stove in the room, but one of these legislators right in the floor, and the heat poured right up through it. I didn't have any appetite and I couldn't get anything I could realize. Honestly, when I got home I was almost an individual!"—Ex.

Good Work.
Noah Hensley was lodged in jail Tuesday. He is a bad character against whom there were seven indictments standing at the last term of court for assaults, disturbing public worship, and like offenses. He was tried in three cases and fined $200 and thirty days in jail, and it is for the payment of these that he was imprisoned. Squire Austin made the arrest, and, by the way, he is doing good service toward ridding the tower end of the county of law breakers. Let him persevere in the work so well begun and may other magistrates follow his example.

Up Sandy Elections.
In Pike county the Republicans got everything except Superintendent of Schools. Hopkins beat Bowles for the Legislature by about 150.

T. S. Dirk was re-elected to the Legislature from Johnson and Martin, without opposition. In Paintsville the "cow" ticket, headed by Warren M. Meek for Police Judge, was elected. The cow ticket was the whiskey ticket.

WEDDED.

Last but not least among the pretty weddings which have occurred in Louisa was that of Miss Veva Eves and Mr. Wm. T. Ferguson which took place at the M. E. Church last Wednesday morning. So far as we can learn it is the first chrysanthemum wedding ever had here. Other features which were out of the ordinary in Louisa weddings were the little girl bridesmaids and the singing of an appropriate song instead of the usual wedding march. All these new features were very attractive too.

The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, and the various shades being very tastefully massed. A large arch covered with chrysanthemums stood at the front of the pulpit elevation, and the background visible through the arch was a solid mass of the flowers. From the center of the arch swung a wedding bell of white chrysanthemums, and at each side, suspended over the aisle, was a circle of the flowers in the center of which hung an initial letter—"E" in the entrance aisle and "F" in the exit.

Notwithstanding the early hour (7 a.m.) for which the wedding was announced, the church was well filled with guests before the appointed time. The signal which told the audience that the bridal party had arrived was the sound of the organ under the skillful touch of Miss Gertrude Stonebraker in an accompaniment to the sweet voice of Mrs. L. S. Johnson in the beautiful and appropriate ballad, "Call Me Thine Own."

Six little white-robed bridesmaids marching in twos first made their appearance, and were followed by the bride couple, then the minister. Reaching the pulpit the couple took a position back of the arch and facing the congregation. Three bridesmaids stood on each side. Rev. J. S. Cox then made them husband and wife, using a choice ceremony, which was delivered in his impressive style. A prayer in which the party knelt was a part of the ceremony.

The music was then resumed and the couple marched out of the church without waiting congratulations. They were driven to the depot and boarded the 7:30 train, bearing the best wishes of everybody. They went to Cincinnati for a few days.

The little girl who played their parts so well as bridesmaids were Heloise Thomas, Bessie Lee Snyder, Lelia Snyder, Mabel Butler, Thelma Delossett and Jean McClure.

The bride wore a becoming traveling suit of brown, and the groom was dressed in black.

This is a worthy and deserving young couple. They are both consistent members of the M. E. Church and are very much respected by everybody. The bride is a young lady of refinement and good education, and the groom is a young man of the highest honor, and is diligent and capable in business. He has been in the employ of the railroad and express company at this point for a long time.

The following is from the Army and Navy Register, of Oct. 28th, in a communication from Sault Ste Marie, Mich. It explains itself:

The first social gun of the season was fired last evening by Lieutenant W. O. Johnson, bachelor, scholar, soldier and gentleman of the old Kentucky school, who entertained a party of 16 distinguished people, or rather caused them to entertain each other by a progressive conversation. In which the 16 guests were divided into "fours," tweladies and two gentlemen each. These groups of four, harmoniously arranged, were first permitted to discuss among themselves for 15 minutes the subject of "the weather, and amusements suitable thereto." At the end of the 15 minutes a bell was rung by the host and the two gentlemen in each group of four progressed to the next group on their "right and rear," the ladies remaining seated. The next "talk" was for 10 minutes on "Music and the Soo Stage" (not the Pickford vehicle of uncertain speed, but the dramatic article kept in the Opera House). Then the ladies were allowed to progress in the opposite direction; and so on at short intervals through the subjects "What is the Best Age at Which to Marry?" "Profanity and Other Bad Habits," and "Where Are We At?" After this an unlimited time was allowed for the discussion of a very dainty and bounteous spread, during which all found their voices and appetites. "Tucker" and "Old Virginia Reel" were then danced by all present, ballots were cast to decide which lady and which gentleman were the most charming conversationalists, and then the parting. Next!

JOHN JERMS.

Charles Reade's "The Cloister and the Hearth," which the critics pronounce his finest novel, is at last to be presented to his admirers in fitting form. A new edition, in two volumes, with 500 illustrations from drawings by William Martin Johnson, will be published by Harper & Brothers in time for the holiday buyer.

Council Meeting.
The City Council met in adjourned session Monday night with following members present: Chairman Snyder, D. C. Spencer, Jas. H. O'Brien, G. W. Gunnell and A. J. Lear.

A petition numerous signed was presented, asking that certain outlying tracts of land be taken from the corporate limits. The petition was referred to a committee for examination and report.

A motion was made to repeal the ordinances passed last week, relating to special tax on merchants and requiring a money deposit from any one going into business. The motion was made to amend so as to repeal only the deposit clause. The original motion was withdrawn and the amendment was lost.

The City Clerk was directed to ascertain the amount due councilmen for attendance and report at the next meeting.

A committee consisting of Gunnell, Spencer and Lear was appointed to report a list of occupations to be specially taxed for revenue.

Attorney J. W. M. Stewart read a huge batch of ordinances properly framed to meet the requirements of our new city. The laws were passed.

The clerk was directed to purchase a suitable ordinance book. Gunnell was appointed to inquire into the cost of publishing the new ordinances and report at the next meeting.

Then, after a busy and numerously-attended meeting of three hours duration the board resolved to get together again on the following Thursday evening, filed down the dark stairway of the city building and vanished in the gloom of the frosty night.

VESSIE.

"Putty" weather ain't it. Nicer than it was this last year.

B. Rife has been very low with typhoid fever but we are glad to say he is some better.

W. T. Rife is still confined to the house. He was taken with typhoid fever about August 10th last and has not sat up five minutes, but is slowly improving.

T. L. Barrett is hauling corn from Cat to our popular deputy clerk David Webb, of Glenwood.

Uncle John Harlis has a relic of the late rebellion in the shape of an old rifle that was manufactured by a relative of Harlis about ten years before the commencement of the war and was carried through the whole war by an uncle of John's. He also has a watch with the same history.

Dr. Sparks is again able to be out a little but still uses his crutches. It is truly hoped he may soon be able to ride, as his services are badly needed in this vicinity, but perhaps this last escapade will learn him a lesson that will not soon be forgotten, and next time he wants to swing he will remember this recent experience and forego the pleasure of a swing on a grape vine.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

The Catlettsburg Chronicle has kicked the bucket, after an existence of six months. It did not pay expenses—same old experience.

Achilles Thompson was acquitted at Pikeville last week for the murder of Jacob Thompson in 1888. The case was tried twice in the same term of court, the first jury failing to agree. Cob Branham was given one year in the penitentiary for house breaking.

In a general fight at a blind tiger in Magoffin county last week between the Risner and Stone families, five of the participants were dangerously wounded.

John R. Melville, 23 years old, accidentally shot himself while hunting near Catlettsburg a short time since, and died last Monday.

By using Hall's Hair Renewer, gray, faded or discolored hair assumes the natural color of youth, and grows luxuriant and strong, pleasing everybody.

There is no doubt about the correctness of the result shown by the investigation mentioned below in regard to the village postoffice:

"One of the postal experiments made by Mr. Wanamaker when Postmaster General is shown by Assistant Postmaster General Jones' report to be a failure. This is free delivery in small towns. Experience has proved that the average villager would rather go to the postoffice to get his letters and gossip about politics than have his mail delivered at his door. Another of Mr. Wanamaker's hobbies, rural delivery of mail, is shown to be utterly impracticable."

"Talcum Powder" is the best known for the face. A. M. Hughes sells it.

EAST FORK.

The farmers are taking advantage of the pretty weather and getting their corn in the crib.

Ike Pannin, of Bear Creek, was here this week looking for fat cattle.

Rev. Jas. A. H. Barrett had some valuable sheep killed by dogs. It is not known whose dogs they were, but ere long he hopes to find out.

Jas. Taylor and wife have just returned from a weeks' visit to relatives in Greenup county. Jas. says corn is good in Greenup county.

John S. Rife, a young nimrod of this place is the proud possessor of two ordinary looking but valuable hound pups. They are a present from his Uncle Cuff.

Jas. Holton the popular school teacher of No. 11, made a business trip to Louisa Saturday.

Van B. Shortridge is having a large barn erected on his home farm to be used as a tobacco barn. Barren intends to cultivate about ten acres next year and profit by the advice of the News.

Uncle Billy Taylor has discarded his buggy. Not on account of the roads, but because by some cause best known to himself he got a shaft broken, and has not gotten it repaired yet. He don't tell how it happened.

It is said that East Fork will soon have two new bridges. We hope it is true, as they are badly needed.

Official Figures.

The official count shows the following result in the several counties composing this Senatorial district:

Elliott, Roe's majority, 347
Lawrence, Bowling's majority, 52
Grimes, " " 235
Boyd, " " 187

Bowling's majority, 127.
In the Legislative contest Weaver carried Boyd by 194 and Lawrence by 31.

In the races for Superintendent and Commissioner, Billups was elected by 95, and Carnutt by 145.

The fall of the year is a trying season for elderly people. The many cheerless, dark, dismal days act depressingly, not to say injuriously, on both old and young. Now is the time to re-enforce the vital energies with Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the best of all blood medicines.
